Welcome to Sly Park!

You are in for a great week! The activities and the memories you make here will last you a lifetime!

To help you keep those memories, this journal has been created. When we meet as a school every night, you will record your thoughts, activities, and feelings in this journal. It will not be read by any of your classmates, so please be honest with your answers.

There is also a page included for names and phone numbers for the new friends you are going to make while you are here.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
